Personal Use Items Lists	Personal use items are items that your child needs in their possession each day to maximize their successful participation in the educational programs. These lists are collated in consultation with teaching staff each year. The School Board has determined that Personal Use Items Lists will not exceed $135 in 2025. Campion compile the lists for our school, which will be distributed to families prior to the 2025 school year.
Optional Costs for Non-Educational Activities	Families may choose to purchase items such as school photographs, graduation shirts, or contribute to fundraising events such as Pyjama Day etc. The costs associated with these optional activities vary widely and are communicated to parents throughout the year. Payments can be made via the Qkr® app.
